

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, Dec. 6

2000

Retirement applications due Friday for Dec. 31-Jan. 3 dates

Retirement applications for Dec. 31 through Jan. 3 separation dates should be submitted to Edwina Bressette in the Human Resources Department no later than Friday to assure timely processing and receipt of payments.

NASA Exchange book fair, 9 a.m.-4 p.m., through Friday, Bldg. 4203, room 1201

Federal health benefits open season ends Monday

December is Drunk, Drugged Driving Prevention Month

There will be a special presentation from 9-10 a.m. Friday in Morris Auditorium in support of National Drunk and Drugged Driving Prevention Month. Bernice Rush, representing Mothers Against Drunk Driving and Brad Owens, representing the Alabama State Troopers Office, will raise awareness of drinking and driving during the holidays and how it could impact your family.

Discovery Channel to air 'Inside the Space Station'

Discovery's "Inside the Space Station" will air at 8 p.m. CST Sunday. The show is the third installment of Discovery's "Watch With the World" series.

Centerwide holiday reception 1-3 p.m. Dec. 14, Bldg. 4752